NUAIGHT NA CROISE NAOFA

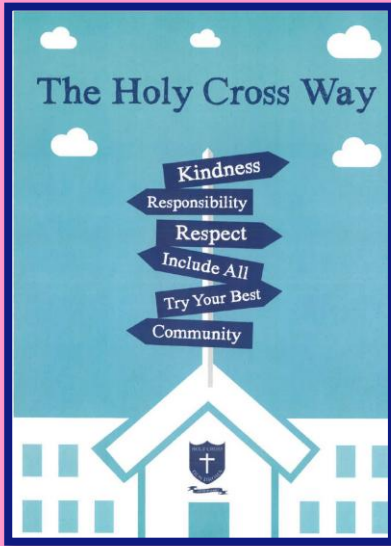

School Photos on Wednesday

This Wednesday, 2nd April, we will have our class photos taken. All classes (except Junior Infants who had their picture taken earlier in the year) will get a photo with their classmates. All children must wear their full school uniform with black, polishable shoes for the photos please. There will be no family photos taken this year as that takes place every second year.

PHOTOS OF THE WEEK

Well done to our two winners of the Holy Cross Raffle this month. These winners set a great example for their peers when it came to showing RESPECT around our school to all pupils and staff throughout the month. The full list of nominees is on the next page!

Holy Cross Way Nominees

Congratulations to all of this month's nominees. They set a great example for their classmates by showing RESPECT around the school during the month of March - maith sibh!

Andy Gibbons Hurling and Camogie Tournament

Mr. Fitz's class took part in the annual Andy Gibbons tournament at the Stepside all-weather pitch last Wednesday afternoon. This is an historic competition that has been running for many years (Mr. McDaid even played in it when he was in Rang 3!). The two teams battled their hearts out in all of their games and were a credit to their school - maith sibh! One team managed to qualify for the finals which were due to take place this Wednesday but will now take place next Wednesday (9th April) at 4:30pm in Naomh Olaf. The teachers will be in touch closer to the time regarding arrangements. Well done all!

In other GAA related news, hurling and camogie training for Rang 3 to Rang 6 will continue

GAA Arrangements this week

Hurling and Camogie training will continue for all classes from Rang 3 to Rang 6 tomorrow morning at 8:15 in the school yard.
